OVERVIEW

Telangana state is going to issue the notification for the openings of the Police Sub-Inspector and Constable job roles against 20,000 vacancies. For this purpose, Parvasthu Creative Foundation came up with the initiative of providing free coaching for the unemployed youth shortlisted through the Talent Test.

Parvasthu Creative Foundation joined hands with Ramky Foundation (RF) in order to take up the training of the rural and semi-urban unemployed youth, in which RF, along with the support of Ramky Infrastructure Ltd. (RIL), played the role of the funding body.

Parvasthu Creative Foundation is currently running a Police Pre-Recruitment Training center at Mamidipally, Telangana, which is implementing the Pre-Recruitment Training Program for 300 candidates across the Telangana state for free of cost & accommodation.

Recently, the Board of Directors of Ramky Infrastructure Ltd. (RIL) paid a visit at this training centre and following are the major highlights from this visitation:

- Founder of the Parvasthu Creative Foundation, Sri Madhukar Swamy commenced the program with an effective introductory speech briefing the RIL delegates about the program as well as the procedure followed for the identification of the beneficiaries.
- Moreover, he explained the journey of the Parvasthu Creative Foundation and how he helped several rural unemployed youth achieve their dreams.
- The Board of Directors visited the classrooms, grounds, dormitories, etc. at the training centre and thoroughly interacted with the beneficiaries as well.
- Beneficiaries gave good feedbacks to the Directors about the training program they were undergoing.
- Each director addressed the gathering publically and motivated the students.

SUGGESTIONS BY THE MBDs:

- Tracking of the students post-examination should be done actively by Parvasthu Creative Foundation as well as Ramky Foundation.
- Ramky Foundation to get all the bills from Parvasthu Creative Foundation and to get them carefully documented in the financial statements.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

- The Board of Directors appreciated the combined efforts of Ramky Foundation and Parvasthu Creative Foundation.
- The MBDs also agreed to deliver motivational sessions once a week at the training centre, in order to boost the morale of the candidates.
- Upon interaction with the beneficiaries, MBDs got to know that they are confident about cracking the exam.
