Need For Skill Development

Successive Indian Governments have opined on the need for skill development of the Indian work force. A multitude of schemes have been set up, both by private and public sectors to meet ambitious skill development goals. However, skill development and entrepreneurship efforts across the country have been highly fragmented so far. As opposed to developed countries, where the percentage of skilled workforce is between 60% and 90% of the total workforce, India records a low 5% of workforce (20-24 years) with formal vocational skills. There is a need for speedy reorganization of the ecosystem of skill development and entrepreneurship promotion in the country to suit the needs of the industry and enable decent quality of life to its population.

Ramky Foundation's Approach

Ramky Foundation facilitates or catalyzes skill development initiatives that can potentially have a multiplier effect. In doing so, it strives to involve the various other stakeholders in all aspects of skill development. Our approach is to develop skills among women and youth whilst partnerships with multiple stakeholders and build long-term associations. To scale up efforts necessary to achieve the objective of skilling/up-skilling people, the RF strives to:

- Develop low cost, high-quality training with innovative business models
- Attract significant linkages which enable the long-term development

Objectives:

- 3E: Employment-Employability-Entrepreneurship
- To generate employment opportunities for weaker sections of society by providing them skill based trainings
